TRAPPING IS STILL GOOD HEREABOUTS

Those who believe that the hunting and trapping days in this section are over are mistaken--at least the experience of one St. Clair youth the past winter would seem to justify that assertion.

Lewis Durand, seventeen years of age, who lives on Henry St., earned approximately $75 during the winter season trapping in the immediate vicinity of St. Clair. Pine river furnishing a large share of the furs obtained. The various pieces of fur were shipped to St. Louis, Mo., where as high as $6 was paid Durand for a single piece.--St. Clair Republican.

Spring Coats and Wraps

Extremely Smart Types
$20.00, $40.00, $50.00

Added to the supreme and infinitely elegant fashion expression in women's and misses' wraps--the chief merit is the character of the tailoring, technique, and finish, which establishes a standard for the highest order of costume work. Developments of Peach Bloom, Camel's hair, Deotone, Tricotone, satin and serge, suede cloth and novelties.

Smart Frocks

With Youthful Touches
$30.00 and $40.00

The diversity of charming modes enables everyone to find more than one reflecting individuality as well as originality. Taffetas and lovely silky satins predominate for dress wear. There is much for which to thank Fashion this season--delightful touches that suggest youth and joyousness. Great vivid patches, gay with yarns and beads, form panels and bandings to embellish otherwise simple frocks. Blocks of stitching in contrasting silks decorate some of the smart apparel, while others are quilted or fashionably knife-plaited. Our buyer says they would be very reasonable at $15 to $20 more, but we are going to sell them at the above prices. While there are a number of them to choose from at present you will have to come early to get the choice selection.

Handsome Suits At $50 $75 $90

Suits from mannish tailored to effective silk embroidery trimmed. The most sought-for fabrics are used--Tricotone, Poiret Twills, Tweeds and Serges. Innovations seen in embroidered arrow heads, wool embroidery, fancy stitching.

Lovely, Fresh Spring Dresses For Girls

Children's "Harem-Scarem" Dresses

Wonderful values made with an elastic in the bottom, which draws the bottom of the dress close together and gives it a full appearance which is in demand at present. Prices $5.00 up.
